

EPK Bio

Faye is a soulful singer/songwriter, and musician based in the Puna District of the Big Island of Hawaii. Her songs reflect a journey of finding inner light and self love, healing, and empowerment. Her music is filled with positive affirmations and prayers and carried by her unique blend of R&B, soul & folk styles. Easily inspiring and enchanting; her catchy sing-a-long lyrics, upbeat rhythms, and melodic vocals encapsulate audiences with a feeling of love and healing.

Faye has recorded with and shared the stage with friends such as Amber Lily, Tubby Love, Fantuzzi, Mikey Pauker and Reed Grimm; and taken her music to festivals and shows across the country including:

Oregon Eclipse Gathering
Oregon County Fair
Shangri-la Music festival
Project Earth
Democratic Convention Jefferson Park stage 2016
Tribal Visions
Flow Fest
MAnafest
Kohala Aina Festival
Vibe High Festival
Inclusion Festival
Burning Dan music festival
Goddess Gathering
Singing Alive Kauai
Singing Alive Cascadia

As well as performing at music festival and shows, Faye leads song circles and sound ceremonies at retreat centers and song gatherings like Singing Alive. She also loves to play around the fireside, and can be found performing at many local venues, farmers markets and Ecstatic Dances.

She is currently recording her first studio album
